Victor Pirone represents domestic and international clients in a wide range of corporate, commercial and regulatory matters, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity, banking and finance, and corporate reorganizations and restructurings.

In addition, Victor assists start-up and early-stage companies on various day-to-day legal matters, including commercial contracts, shareholder agreements, financings, and regularly advises shareholders, directors and officers in matters relating to corporate law and governance.

Drawing on his entrepreneurial experience, Victor guides his clients through their legal and business issues by applying the practical insights he gained working in the family business. He intimately understands the difficult decisions business owners must make and the flexibility required to adjust and manoeuvre in the ever-changing and fast-paced modern marketplace.

Seeing himself as a strategic partner in his clients' enterprises, he provides a tailor-made approach to their legal needs based on their unique requirements. Focusing on balanced, long-terms solutions, he identifies risks and recommends the best path forward.

Victor also assists foreign businesses establishing operations in Canada and executing multi-jurisdictional transactions.
